CHILDREN'S MASQUERADE.

Prof. M. H. McMinn Gives a Pleasant Dance to Juvenile Dancing Club Saturday Afternoon.

The children's masquerade dance given by Prof. M. H. McMinn to his juvenile dancing club at Music hall, last Saturday evening, was one of the most pleasant and interesting events of the season for the children. There was a large attendance, 115 children taking part and about 185 visitors being present to enjoy the dance. Many of the costumes were highly attractive and unique, and prizes were awarded to the following: To the best woman, Miss Winnie Jones; the best man, Master Nat Kimbrell. The judges were Roy Leazer, Frank Pierce, Mrs. William Baker, Miss Marshall and Mrs. C. E. Troutman.

One of the most unique costumes present was that of Julian Lowe, whose suit was made of East Oregonian head letters, throughout. His vest and collar were made of the colored supplement heads, and being cut and fitted neatly, made a pretty and attractive costume.

Professor McMinn intends to give something extra, in form of an entertainment for the children each month. The juvenile dancing club is now one of the principal Saturday afternoon attractions in the city.

RETURN FROM THE EAST.

T. J. Tweedy and Family Greatly Enjoyed the St. Louis Fair and the East.

T. J. Tweedy and family have returned from an extended visit to the St. Louis exposition, and other points in the East. Mr. Tweedy is greatly surprised at the improvements in the Eastern states, and declares the St. Louis exposition was the greatest collection of industrial arts, fine arts and other products of civilization ever brought together.

He was glad to get back to Oregon, where they do things on a larger scale, however, and wonders how people can be content in the crowded Eastern centers, when so many opportunities are awaiting them in the West.

Compared to one large reservation farm, the 20, 40 and 80-acre farms of the East are but back yards.

WADE SURRENDERED.

SHEEPMEN MAY SEND DELEGATE

THEY ARE DISCUSSING THE QUESTION TODAY.

Flockmasters All Deeply Interested in Problems of Forestry—The Government Has Invited Their Co-operation—Range Distribution and Timber Conservation Are the Matters of Greatest Concern—Will Decide at This Meeting.

Whether or not Umatilla county will be represented at the coming Forestry congress to be held in Washington, D. C., on January 2, is being earnestly discussed by the Woolgrowers' Association this afternoon. A number of sheepmen are in the city from different points in the county, and the matter is being lifted thoroughly.

The object of the forestry congress is to decide upon the future plans of the government with regard to the forest reserves, and as the disposal of range within the reserves is to be one of the vital subjects for discussion, Oregon sheepmen are deeply interested in the meeting.

The government has invited stockmen to meet with the forestry experts to arrive at some practical plan of dividing out and disposing of the ranges within the government reserves, and every section of the United States affected by the forest reserves is expected to be on hand with representatives.

Among the sheepmen at the meeting today are Lon Knotts of Pilot Rock, Douglas Belts of Birch Creek, Antone and Joe Vey of Butler Creek, J. E. Smith and Charles Cunningham of this city, John Rust of Vinson, and Secretary J. H. Gwinn of the state association.

At time of going to press no decision had been reached, and it is not known whether a delegate will be sent or not. The general sentiment is in favor of being represented at the congress, and yet many of the leading sheepmen believe that the representatives in congress from Oregon, will attend to the matter for Oregon sheepmen.

THE "GOOD NEWS MEETINGS."

Largely and Enthusiastically Attended.

The services at the Baptist church yesterday were all well attended. Evangelist Neill addressed four meetings during the day, and all were well pleased with his manner of presenting the truth. It is a splendid time at this Christmas season to consider the manifestation of God's love in sending His only Son into the world. Truly it was good news that the angels announced to the shepherds on that wonderful night 1900 years ago: Glory to God in the highest; on earth peace, good will to men.

Mr. Neill will speak every night, at the Baptist church, corner East Alta and Johnson streets, also every afternoon at 2:30. All are invited.

"Drunk and Irresponsible."

Constable J. A. Lieualien, in behalf of himself and W. P. Read, has brought action against George Carmichael to recover $40, the balance alleged to be due of a reward of $50 offered by defendant for the recovery of a horse and cart belonging to defendant which Somerset took from a hitching rack in Weston and drove up the mountain, in July last. According to the plaintiff, Mr. Carmichael paid $10 of the reward and promised the balance after harvest. Somerset was employed for Trajan Tucker at the time he took the rig. He pleaded guilty, saying that he was drunk and irresponsible, and that somebody had told him he could use the rig to drive home; that he had no thought of stealing it. He was released on the payment of the costs.—Weston Leader.

New Charter.

At the last meeting of the city council it was decided to formulate plans for the adoption of a new charter for the town of Pilot Rock. This is a necessary preliminary to the installation of a water works system. The members of the city council are a unit in favor of a new charter, and all but one in favor of a water works system. This is quite encouraging for the city future outlook.—Pilot Rock Record.

The Pilot Rock Postoffice.

After a little over four months in the harness as postmaster of Pilot Rock, William Mathews has signified his intention of resigning, and as might be expected, several persons are out with petitions asking for endorsements as his successor.—Pilot Rock Record.

Sunday Band Concert.

Prof. McMinn gave another of his series of free band concerts at Music Hall, yesterday afternoon. A large crowd was present and enjoyed the excellent music. Prof. McMinn will make a specialty of these Sunday concerts during the entire winter, and all are cordially invited to attend.

Special Concert Next Sunday.

The band concert given by Prof. McMinn at Music hall next Sunday afternoon will be an especially arranged program, one of the features to be the rendition of Suppe's overture, "Morning, Noon and Night."

Narrow Escape for Shaw.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Secretary Shaw had a narrow escape from death this morning as he crossed a street. An electric car struck the secretary, but the fender picked him up, carrying him 40 feet uninjured.
